

Simplify Your Stewardship (and 100% goes to ACP – no processing fees)

What's the most efficient way to make your stewardship payments to the ACP? If you are a French taxpayer and you have a European bank account, the answer is by bank transfer or "virement." It's free and simple to set up a recurring weekly or monthly payment. The only information you need is the ACP RIB (attached below). With that info you can go to your online banking site and set up your stewardship payments for the entire year in less than five minutes in many banks. Even if your bank requires time to assess security, you will find this worth it! If you're not a fan of online banking, just take the ACP RIB to your bank branch and they can set up the payments for you. Then you can sit back and enjoy the beautiful offertory music instead of scrambling for your cash, checkbook, or credit card when the plate is being passed. Importantly, 100% of your contribution goes directly to the ACP bank account with no processing required and no credit card fees deducted.

To learn more about the info included on the RIB and how transfer payments are processed by European banks, have a look at this short video: https://www.europeanpaymentscouncil.eu/news\_insights/videos/iban-your-new-best-friend
